About TWI

TWI, world-leading independent research and technology organisation, has a 1st-class reputation in materials joining and engineering processes as applied in industry. TWI specialises in innovation, knowledge transfer and solving problems across all aspects of manufacturing, fabrication and whole-life integrity management.

The Welding Institute, housed at TWI, is the leading professional engineering institution responsible for the professional registration and certification of welding and materials-joining personnel worldwide.

Our visit will include a welcome from Dr Reza Razmjoo, Director of Business Development, TWI, a presentation by Peter Oakley, Associate Director, TWI; a tour of their facilities, including their new (last year) state-of-the-art laboratories; and a panel discussion/Q&A session with key staff whom we have met.
